Duo – Keepin it Real

“Keepin it Real” play great music from the 60’s right through to the current decade. Everyone aged between 18 & 80, will be sure to hear their songs. The duo work hard to ensure that the audience has a great time. Priding themselves on “keeping it real” by not using any artificial effects, they simply rely on their musical ability and experience to play real music the way it should be.

With just two acoustic guitars and vocal it is a refreshing change from many entertainers these days that use poor quality electronic backing tracks and samples. “Keeping it real” deliver a quality live performance without relying on pretend sounds.

The duo consists of Scott Day and Gordon Cormack who are experienced professional who have played at some of the most popular venues in Sydney and surrounding areas. They have entertained audiences at bars, restaurants, hotel, and private functions. Individually, they have both performed in bands, duos plus solo work around Sydney for this last 20 + years.

“Keepin it Real” play a wide variety of music from beautiful ballads to classic hits and are ideal for venues where a full band is not practical or where a more intimate atmosphere is required. Engaging with the audience is a key feature to the popularity of the duo.

Sound production and lighting are provided where required and using in-house production is no problem either.

No matter what the occasion, “Keepin it Real” is the ideal duo for your Club, Hotel, Conference, or function.
